WHAT IS BHAKTA SPIRITS?

BHAKTA Spirits is the latest venture from Raj Peter Bhakta, founder of WhistlePig. Following the sale of WhistlePig, Raj amassed impressive collections of spirits in every category, starting with French Armagnac. Purveying the oldest spirits in the world and a peerless collection of hospitality properties in France, Colombia, Florida, and Vermont, BHAKTA Spirits stewards consumers to “Find their Spirit” through thoughtfully curated drinks, lodging, and mindful living.

WHAT IS GRISWOLD?

Nestled in Vermont’s rolling mountains lies the Griswold campus – an experiential spirits destination. Just a few hours from NYC and Boston, Griswold sits on the site of Green Mountain College. The Bhakta’s purchased the campus in 2020, headquartered BHAKTA Spirits on the property shortly thereafter, and are committed to transforming the campus and returning prosperity to a rural corner of Vermont. Named after Raj’s admired history teacher and the campus library, Griswold is evolving into a novel hub for hospitality, wellness, and—of course—food and drink. The campus offers a distillery, farm, spirits library, refined dormitory accommodations, and a wellness center, bringing guests Back to School for a reimagined college experience.

WHY SHOULD I VISIT?

We have opened our doors to the community we know best, welcoming the spirits trade to Griswold to revel, relax, and revive.

DAY 1: REVELRY

- o Taste and Blend our vintage spirits collection dating back to 1868;
- o Party like it’s your senior year next to North America’s only wood-fired alembic still, and lounge in the campus taproom and billiards hall – no SATs, finals, or student loans required.

DAY 2: RELAXATION

- o Enjoy our pristine river-front scenery and revitalizing environment while enjoying locally sourced food and drink from Vermont’s best dairy, produce, meat, and beverage producers.

DAY 3: REVIVAL

- o Before departing, experience The Griswold Method under the guidance of our Wellness Directors – a signature breath-based meditation experience, coupled with sauna immersions and cold plunges.

We know you will enjoy an unforgettable experience that will be well worth the journey.

So come visit us, and
